

How to use hand gesture reactions on macOS

1. Open FaceTime or another video call platform that supports the feature.

Google Meet, Microsoft Teams, or Zoom will do the trick.

2. Activate your camera and you'll see the Video menu button appear on the main macOS navigation bar—it's a bright green button with a white camera. Click it and make sure Reactions is selected. This will activate the feature.

